HEADS OF INTELLIGENCE.

The American Senate has passed a bill abolishing slavery in Columbia. It was opposed by all the Border State members. The President's emancipation proposal has been adopted in the Senate by 32 to 10. The House of Representatives has voted thirteen millions of dollars for iron-clad vessels. The War Department has stopped recruiting for the Federal army.

Nearly the whole of the Federal expedition down the Potomac has arrived at Fortress Monroe. Island No. 10 in the Mississippi still maintains a successful resistance. New Orleans has not yet been attacked.

An incidental discussion on Italian affairs in the House of Commons, has drawn from Ministers a strong opinion against the continued occupation of Rome by French troops.

An important discussion has been raised in the House of Peers on the erection of coast defences. The experiments with the new gun upon iron-plated vessels have again turned attention to the value of forts.

The Japanese Ambassadors have had a warm official reception in Paris.

The following names appear in the obituary of the week:—

In her Majesty's Indian Army: Captain J. R. Soady, Bombay Engineers.

Miscellaneous: Admiral Sir E. Strobe—Mr. Brandt.

The annual boat-race between Oxford and Cambridge has been determined this year in favour of Oxford, who won by six lengths.

The new smooth-bore Armstrong gun has been tried at close range against an iron-target four times the thickness of the Warrior's plates. The target was shattered.

A bill introduced by Government for the concentration of all the courts of law in one building was lost on the second reading in the Commons by 83 to 81.

Questions have been put in the Commons respecting the position of medical officers in India and the Indian Contracts Bill.

The Italian government have remonstrated with the Prussian minister, who is charged with Austrian interests, against the concentration of Bourbonian and reactionary adherents at Trieste.

The University of Berlin has returned an indignant protest against the attempt of ministers to influence its votes in the approaching elections. The University of Bonn is said to have followed the example.

The Belgian Chamber has agreed to the government proposal for the organization of an additional daily post between Ostend and Dover.

All the Great Powers except France are stated to have consented to the invasion of Montenegro by Turkish troops.

Great preparations are making at Naples for the reception of Victor Emmanuel.

Garibaldi continues his progress through Northern Italy. It is affirmed that he will go to Naples and Sicily.

The prohibition of the French government against the journey of the bishops to Rome is not to be enforced.

The Legislative Assembly of Corfu have again protested against the English protectorate, and desired to be united to Greece. The Lord High Commissioner in reply declared the protectorate inviolate.

The Parliamentary committee on the Grimsby election has decided in favour of Mr. Chapman's return.

Mr. Roupell has resigned the representation of Lambeth. Mr. Doulton is mentioned as a candidate on the Liberal interest.

Local sub-committees are being formed throughout the country to collect subscriptions for the Prince Consort Memorial Fund.

Mr. F. A. Lushington, of the Bengal Civil Service, and Mr. J. J. Cotton of the Madras Civil Service, have been permitted to resign.

At the Epsom Spring Meeting, the City and Suburban Handicap was won by Sawcutter and the Great Metropolitan Stakes by Elcho.

The Yelverton case will come on shortly in the Irish Court of Common Pleas.

The Great Eastern has been thoroughly repaired. She leaves Milford for New York early in May.

The Sumter has been sold at Gibraltar.

The Emily St. Pierre, from Calcutta, is reported to have been captured while attempting to run the blockade at Charleston.

At the annual meeting of the Agra and United Service Bank a dividend equal to a rate of 12 per cent. per annum was declared.

At the annual meeting of the Oriental Bank a dividend equal to a rate of 15 per cent. per annum was declared.
